

Religious Education: Hall Monitor

Description of your role

Hall Monitors assist the Religious Education staff in creating and maintaining an efficient and effective learning environment.

1. Hall Monitors are faithful in their attendance at scheduled sessions.
2. Hall Monitors help maintain an adult presence in the school hallways during Religious Education classes.
3. The Hall Monitor helps insure that school facilities are kept secure and orderly during Religious Education activities.
4. Hall Monitors help insure that students walking in the hallways are directed to their approved destination. Hall Monitors will promote safe passage rules.
5. Hall Monitors can assist in moving equipment, books and classroom materials as needed.

What qualifications are required to become a hall monitor?

The most fundamental requirement of a hall monitor is that the person is an active, practicing Catholic with a willingness and ability to help maintain an orderly and safe environment in the school.

The hall monitor will possess a warm heart and be willing to patiently work with children and other Religious Education team members.

What can I expect in my role as a hall monitor?

1. Most hall monitors find satisfaction in working with the students and Religious Education team.
2. Most hall monitors enjoy working on the Religious Education team as they provide a service to the religious education effort and our students.
3. Hall monitors find that working as part of the Religious Education team is fun.

What kind of support can I expect?

1. The parish provides a dedicated staff member to assist hall room monitors in their roles.
2. The parish provides an environment conducive to teaching and learning.

What if I have other questions to ask about becoming a Hall Monitor?
